Connel is a sought-after loch side village, noted for its landmark iron bridge which spans the tidal rapids known as the Falls Of Lora. Situated some five miles from Oban, the principal town of the West Highlands, it offers a good range of amenities and services which include a medical centre, community hall, a church and two hotels with restaurants. Primary schooling is in the nearby village of Benderloch, with a bus service provided. The village also enjoys good transport links by road and rail to the central belt with Connel Station being a stop on the Oban to Glasgow line.

Equally well suited as a holiday home or as a compact permanent home, Ard Beag is a unique and intriguing detached property situated on the fringe of this sought-after village and by virtue of the configuration of the accommodation, with the combined sitting room and kitchen on the upper level, enjoys marvellous views over Loch Etive and towards the Connel Bridge.
