The picturesque coastal conservation village of Ellenabeich is delightfully situated on the Firth of Lorne some 16 miles south of the principal West Highland town of Oban on the Island of Seil, connected to the mainland by the famous 'Bridge Over The Atlantic' in an area of outstanding natural beauty, steeped in history and rich in flora and fauna and is renowned for its magnificent scenery, excellent sailing and fishing waters. Services in the village and the surrounding area include shops/post office, primary school, bar/restaurant, medical practice, and a 9 hole golf course, whilst the community hall hosts a variety of activities and events.

Number 21 is a quaint traditional stone built end-terraced cottage, category B listed, built for the slate miners' of the eighteenth century. Although in need of some cosmetic upgrades, the characterful property is equally well suited as a holiday home/letting unit or as a compact permanent residence. Of particular note is the exposed stone feature in the hall and surrounding the fireplace in the sitting room. Externally the cottage enjoys a small area of garden to the front, surrounded by a low wall, with enough space for a display of plant pots and a seating area.
