Kilchrenan is a small, picturesque village on the north side of Loch Awe, reached via a six-mile long section of the B845 road through Glen Nant from the A85 at Taynuilt. There is a thriving local community with the village hall and excellent inn being the focal point of village activities and groups. There is also a church and two superb loch-side hotels nearby which are renowned for their cuisine. Loch Awe is Scotland's longest fresh water loch and one of its most picturesque with wooded shores and numerous small islands which can be explored by boat. It is also noted for the quality of its trout fishing. The entire area is one of great natural beauty and provides almost unlimited scope for outdoor sporting and leisure pursuits. The nearby village of Taynuilt, 6 miles away, offers an excellent range of local amenities with the principal town of Oban, 18 miles away, providing a more comprehensive selection of shops, leisure facilities and professional services.

Clachan Mhor is an appealing and easily managed detached bungalow peacefully situated on the fringe of this delightful village. Offering well proportioned accommodation, a particular feature of note is the bright and airy sitting room with multi-fuel stove with access to a decked seating area. The mature garden, which affords a good degree of privacy, surrounds the property and adds greatly to the amenity of this fine home.
