The delightful former slate mining village of Balvicar is situated around Balvicar Bay on the Island of Seil, which is connected to the mainland by the famous 'Bridge over the Atlantic', in an area renowned for its outstanding natural beauty with excellent sailing, fishing and diving, being just a few of the interests that can be enjoyed in the area. Local services on the island include an excellent village store/post office and 9 hole golf course, a doctors surgery, village hall, primary school, a boatyard and two pubs with restaurants, The Oyster Bar at Ellenabeich and the Tigh An Truish, at Clachan Seil.

4 Cnoc Beag is a delightful mid-terraced bungalow, in a small development of similar properties situated on the fringe of the village and enjoys pleasant open views over the surrounding countryside towards Balvicar Bay. Offering well proportioned accommodation the property benefits from an effective electric heating system augmented by a multi-fuel stove in the sitting room. The sun room extension is an excellent addition, designed to take full advantage of the views and all adding to the appeal of this easily managed home.
