Agents Perspective

White Lodge is one of those homes that's hard to come by. From the minute you enter the drive, you sense the space, the calm and something a bit special. The house sits in a generous walled garden of nearly half an acre. The design does not skimp on room size and the layout really works. There are four proper double bedrooms and four bathrooms. Three of the bedrooms have their own en-suites, all are of a good size – no box rooms here. If you've got family or friends staying, or older kids, there's room for everyone to do their own thing.

The dining kitchen is a standout, where everything comes together, whether for a quiet breakfast or a bigger get-together.

There is a large living room and a separate drawing room, so you have options depending on the mood.

The conservatory is ideal for summer lunches and dinners, looking out over the garden. There is even a hobby room which could just as easily be an office, gym or extra bedroom. Practicalities are covered too with a large utility room, a pantry and a cloakroom with separate W.C.

Outside there's more than enough parking for several cars, plus a double garage and a large workshop, which would be great for anyone needing storage or space for projects.

The garden feels like your own private park, with somewhere always catching the sun. There is plenty of space for relaxing, playing or pottering about, and not forgetting the large greenhouses and cold frames for the dedicated gardeners.

Unbelievably, all this exists just minutes' walk from Westwood Pastures and Beverley town centre.

Whether you are retiring and wanting to stay local, with room for visiting family, or you are after a home with space to grow, White Lodge fits the bill.
