Offered with the benefit of a secure (gated) private parking space, this magnificent and beautifully arranged first floor Victorian conversion apartment is to be found in a particularly desirable spot on the slopes of Richmond Hill.

Featuring an abundance of entertaining space, large bay windows, attractive timber flooring and a stylish layout, this glorious conversion flat comes with a large expanse of shared garden, to a Westerly aspect, perfect for the afternoon and evening sunshine.

The reception room is perfect for entertaining, whilst the 'high gloss' kitchen is very well equipped too. Most notably, the ceiling height throughout this flat is quite spectacular, as light floods in through the huge windows.

The master bedroom, with a range of wardrobes, is particularly well proportioned, with space for a dressing table and chest of drawers. Additionally, the second bedroom is the perfect guest bedroom. The family bathroom features quality sanitary ware.

This charming home provides excellent access to the town centre and an array of restaurants, shops and amenities, whilst Royal Richmond Park, the River Thames and its historic and enchanting towpath walks are also nearby.

This fabulous property certainly comes highly recommended.
