This impressive three bedroom apartment is set within a beautiful white stucco fronted house with views across Richmond Green and located in the heart of Richmond just moments from the shops and Train Station.

As soon as you walk into this apartment you get a feeling of space, with large rooms, neutral decor and high ceilings. This is the ideal place to come home to and relax after a hard day at work. There is plenty of space for entertaining, the large living room has large windows with views across Richmond Green.

In addition to this there are three bedrooms, two of which are doubles; with an ensuite shower room to the master bedroom as well as a further family bathroom.

This stunning home is offered in excellent condition and benefits from access to a lovely communal garden.
