A sensational refurbished apartment on Richmond Hill, in Richmond upon Thames.

This very well-appointed, architecturally redesigned 3rd floor apartment is nestled in a particularly desirable leafy area in an attractive private development on Richmond Hill, adjacent to the beautiful riverside Terrace Gardens.

Featuring expansive living accommodation, in the shape of a huge reception room, with ample space for entertaining, then a beautifully equipped kitchen with new quality integrated appliances, ample food preparation areas, a hob and masses of storage space. The high ceilings add to the undoubted appeal, while residents parking is a particularly notable feature. The bathroom is very tastefully finished, with contemporary sanitary-ware and stylish fittings. The master bedroom is a great size, and the guest bedroom includes a dressing room/study area – It could also be the perfect place for a child's cot. It's a great layout, for sure. Luxury carpets and high-quality fixtures along with excellent storage solutions complete this lovely mansion flat.

The location of this magnificent apartment lends itself to a commuter who can take advantage of Richmond station or indeed, a resident who'd like to take in the plethora of amenities, restaurants and leisure facilities Richmond upon Thames has to offer, the historic towpath walks along The River Thames and of course, the magnificent Royal Richmond Park, moments away, at the top of the Hill.

With porters on-site, the use of a hard tennis court for residents and so much more, this property comes highly recommended.
