This spacious, two-bedroom split-level flat, converted from a charming period property, is located on a quiet residential street in the heart of highly desirable Richmond. The first floor boasts a beautiful, light-filled living and dining area, alongside a newly renovated kitchen and modern bathroom. On the second floor, you'll find a generous master bedroom with ample built-in storage, along with a second double bedroom.

Halford is ideally positioned just a few hundred yards from Richmond town centre, which offers an array of elegant shops, boutiques, and dining options. The scenic River Thames is also nearby, offering a tranquil escape from the busy city life. Richmond train station is within easy reach, providing access to the District Line, as well as fast overground services to London Waterloo and Stratford via North London.
