Nestled gracefully on the gentle slopes of Richmond Hill, this stunning first-floor Victorian conversion apartment embodies impeccable design and captivating aesthetics. Its allure is complemented by the coveted addition of a secure private parking space, enhancing its irresistible charm.

Crafted as a haven for hosting and leisure, this residence unveils a spacious layout graced with majestic bay windows, inviting timber flooring, and an effortlessly chic ambiance. Bathed in the evening's warm embrace, a substantial shared garden to the West beckons, offering an idyllic retreat to bask in the ethereal glow of dusk.

The reception room stands as an ideal entertainment space, seamlessly flowing into a well-equipped 'high gloss' kitchen that elevates the home's appeal. The remarkable ceiling height enhances the sense of openness, flooding every corner with natural light streaming through its expansive windows.

The master bedroom, boasting ample wardrobe space, exudes a generous aura and provides ample room for a dressing table and chest of drawers. Meanwhile, the second bedroom awaits as a welcoming guest space, while the family bathroom showcases high-quality sanitary ware, blending sophistication with practicality.

Strategically situated for easy access to the vibrant town center, this charming abode ensures close proximity to an array of dining, shopping, and diverse amenities. Additionally, it enjoys the tranquil proximity of Royal Richmond Park, the meandering beauty of the River Thames, and its historic towpath trails—a picturesque landscape ideal for leisurely strolls and moments of serenity.

Presenting an unparalleled fusion of elegance, convenience, and captivating surroundings, this exceptional property is highly recommended for those seeking refined living amidst an enchanting setting.
