Take a look at what could be your next family home, with its prime location and generous plot it promises a canvas ripe for transformation. Upon entering you will be greeted by the lounge, a generous space with access through to the dining room. There you will find a small office/store room providing a versatile space brimming with possibilities and a handy downstairs wc. The kitchen, though dated is ready to be transformed into a modern space. To the ground floor you will also find a utility storage space running the length of the property which gives easy access to the garage, ideal for those looking for extra storage or space for hobbies. To the first floor you will find the three bedrooms, the master even has it's own shower cubicle and a family bathroom, though functional awaits a rejuvenating touch. But perhaps the most alluring aspect of this property lies beyond its walls—a rear garden with an open aspect, offering a canvas of greenery and tranquillity. Here, the possibilities are endless—a space for alfresco dining, gardening endeavours. In conclusion, while this three-bedroom detached home may require modernisation, its location on a sought after estate, coupled with its ample plot and open aspect to the rear, renders it a diamond—an opportunity awaiting the creative vision of its future inhabitants. No onward chain. Freehold. Council Tax Band D.
