£475,000 Freehold

21 Newmarket Road, Brighton, BN2 3QG

A rarely available mid-terrace four bedroom Period Townhouse laid out over three floors, located in an attractive tree-lined street off Lewes Road, having level access into the city centre. The property has scope to update and improve, and having two private street entrances it could be split to create a two bedroom maisonette and a one bedroom apartment (STNC). The house has well-proportioned accommodation, currently laid out with four bedrooms, two bathrooms and an open-plan living space that leads onto a patio garden. Located close to Sainsbury's and Aldi on Lewes Road, which also has an array of national and local shops and eateries, regular bus services into the city centre and is a short walk to The Level (award-winning Park) and the seafront.

Approach

Wrought iron railings to front, steps descend from street level to separate lower ground floor entrance, further steps lead up to raised ground floor entrance with six-panel UPVC front door opening into:
