With a large plot it certainly packs a punch where indoor and outdoor space are concerned.

Pull on your block paved drive where there is lots of space for the family and visiting guests to park.

Spread across four floors with short staircases between each floor, you have all the living and bedroom space you could need for a family. Perfect for those with older children or for one that is ready to grow.

From the hallway you can access your ground floor wc/cloaks which is ideally placed for guests and little ones.

The snug lounge is to your right, perfect for the family nights in front of a film. The bay window overlooks the front of the property.

Opposite you will find the entrance to your integral garages. Perfect for your classic car or an option for a teenage hang out space if needed.
