

The Front, Potten End Berkhamsted HP4 2QR

Situated in the heart of the sought-after village of Potten End, just moments from Berkhamsted, The Front is a delightful two-bedroom semi-detached character cottage bursting with charm and period features. Offered to the market in good decorative order and with the added benefit of being chain-free, this beautiful home blends timeless character with comfortable and versatile living accommodation. The property welcomes you into a spacious living room adorned with exposed beams, creating a warm and inviting ambiance. A useful office space, which can also function as a third bedroom, adds flexibility for modern living. To the rear, the well-appointed kitchen enjoys views over the garden and provides a functional and homely cooking space. Upstairs, there are two generously sized bedrooms, both brimming with natural light, as well as a family bathroom. Outside, the enchanting, south facing walled rear garden has been thoughtfully designed with a low-maintenance, cottage-style theme-the perfect spot to unwind or entertain in peaceful surroundings. Ideally positioned in a charming village setting with local amenities and countryside walks nearby, and within easy reach of Berkhamsted's vibrant High Street and mainline station, this property would make a wonderful home or weekend retreat.
