

Kimberley Road Seaford

Offers in excess of £600,000

A charming Detached Freehold House. This Family Home offers period features and has a stunning kerb appeal. Built in early 1900s with a flint and red brick construction which is pleasing to the eye. Enjoying an elevated position boasting captivating views over Seaford Bay.

The property features a large wrap-around garden perfect for children and garden enthusiasts, complete with a large Summerhouse with electricity and a patio area. The versatile layout allows for potential reconfiguration, subject to the necessary consents, with extensions including a loft conversion in 1988 and a balcony added in 1998.

Comprising four reception rooms, four bedrooms, two kitchens and two bathrooms. Parking available on site with space for approximately 4 cars, with potential for garage addition (subject to consents). View the attached floor plan for further details.

There may be a need for modernisation and renovation, particularly in the ground floor area, which is reflected in the asking price.
