Alfriston Road Seaford

Offers in the region of £425,000

A beautiful light and airy Victorian end of terraced house with period features which was modernised a few years ago. All internal doors are solid oak. Oak flooring in the entrance hall, dining room, kitchen and bathroom. The modern kitchen comes with solid oak work tops. The tiled bathroom is fitted with a free standing bath and walk in shower. The lovely private rear garden creates a safe play area for children.

The property offers three light and airy double bedrooms, a lounge, separate dining room, modern kitchen, a beautiful modern bathroom, a private rear garden plus a garage with a workshop and off road parking via a shared drive way.

The property is located close to transport links, schools and a corner shop.

These properties do not often come up for sale so an early viewing is highly recommended.
