Well Lane Shaftesbury

Guide Price
£419,950

There is more to this charming Victorian cottage than initially meets the eye - sitting at the end of a no through lane, boasting splendid countryside views, this delightful property is offered for sale with no onward chain, benefitting from three double bedrooms, main with en-suite shower room and set in a large garden that allows many opportunities to combine formal gardening and a step towards productive self-reliant living. The cottage is situated in the sought after Enmore Green area of the hilltop town of Shaftesbury, where the residents consider themselves more villagers than town folk and were historically the water providers for the town - many homes in Well Lane still have their own water wells. There is a grade II listed church nearby and the town centre is about half a mile away where there is a full range amenities.

This delightful cottage dates to around 1875, reputedly a farm worker's cottage and over the course of time has evolved into a spacious, contemporary home that will certainly get the seal of approval from many potential buyers. The accommodation is arranged over three floors and provides well proportioned rooms with an easy to use layout with choice as to their usage. There are plenty of options for work from home space with the attached room benefitting from an exterior separate entrance as well as the potential to develop the outbuilding at the bottom of the garden. The property successfully marries old world charm with contemporary needs - retaining many character features, such as sash windows, exposed floorboards and fireplaces and boasting on trend open plan living space - ideal for entertaining family and friends - where memories are created.

It is essential that a viewing is carried out, not just for the internal space but also the outside and the environment. An early viewing is urged to avoid disappointment on missing out on being the next lucky owner.

Steps rise to a useful porch with door into the sitting room, which boast a wood burner, There is a further open plan living space with room for a dining table and a great family space with openings to the kitchen area. There is also a utility and cloakroom. On the first floor there is the bathroom and two double bedrooms, whilst on the second floor there is the main bedroom enjoying fabulous rural views and use of the en-suite shower room. Outside, there is parking for two cars, a range of outbuildings and a large garden.
