Mill Lane

Mere

Tucked away, at the end of a no through lane, with no passing traffic, is this unique, detached period cottage sitting in grounds of about a quarter of an acre and around 2358 sq. ft. (219 sq. m) of comfortable and flexible living space. The property has four generously sized bedrooms, is presented for sale with no onward chain and backs onto the old watercress beds, providing a tranquil backdrop, with delightful views over the water to the downs. It is situated on the fringe of one of Wiltshire's prettiest towns and is within walking distance to a local pub that serves food, primary school and dental surgery. Mere has a bustling community and caters well for everyday needs with a museum, library and medical centre, post office, Co-op store and fire station. There are also an electrical shop and two more pubs.

We believe that the cottage dates back over 400 years - thought to have been three cottages - and offers plenty of character and charm with a flexible internal layout that will meet the demands of modern day living. The entrance reception room would make a fabulous library and/or study and there is scope to convert the fourth bedroom into an en-suite/dressing room for bedroom two. The spacious sitting room boasts a fireplace for those chilly winter nights and the dining/garden room is perfect for hosting family gatherings or dinner with friends. Outside, there is even potential to develop the bothy to suit your needs. There is plenty of gated parking and the opportunity to re-design the garden to your own style. For those who enjoy the outdoors, there are foot paths leading into town, making daily strolls a delight.

If you are seeking a property with character, history, and the potential to tailor it to your liking, then this period house is the one to see. Don't let the opportunity to be the next owner slip by!
