Upstairs, there are two good sized double bedrooms and a family bathroom with a bath and a generous 1mtr shower.

The glorious garden is way bigger than you'd expect 90ft + – beautifully laid out with mature plants, pear and apple trees recent new garden shed, plenty of space to entertain, unwind, or simply breathe. A generous sun terrace is perfect for summer evenings, a very private space sun trap, with the brook at the bottom of the garden, and glorious Ash Tree.

With plenty of scope to add your own style, south facing roofs for solar panels perfect for self sufficient living. Council Tax Band B, short walk to local amenities and only a few minutes drive from Sherborne's historic streets and architecture, this 70s home is quirky, very special, and full of potential.

It's not just a house – it's a discovery. You must step inside.

The Property Accommodation

Inside

Ground Floor

A contemporary door opens into a bright and inviting entrance hall with glazed doors opening to the rear sun terrace, double doors open to the sitting room and there is an opening into the dining area. For appearance and practicality, the floor is laid in a ceramic tile. The well proportioned sitting room enjoys a double aspect with a window to the front and overlooking the rear sun terrace plus double doors that open to the terrace. Adding character and warmth to the room is the feature fireplace. The floor is laid in an attractive wood effect laminate. The dining area looks out over the front garden and has ample room for a dining table and chairs. From here, there are stairs rising to the first floor, an opening to the kitchen/breakfast room and door to the cloakroom, which is fitted with a modern suite.

The kitchen/breakfast room is of a good size with windows to the side overlooking the rear sun terrace. It is fitted with a range of modern, soft closing units consisting of floor cupboards, separate drawer unit and eye level cupboards. You will find a generous amount of work surfaces with a matching upstand and a sink and drainer with a swan neck mixer tap. There is also a breakfast bar. The washing machine and dishwasher are integrated and the dual fuel range and American style fridge/freezer are available by separate negotiation. There is a good sized understairs storage cupboard. The floor is laid in an attractive solid wood.

From the kitchen there is door into a lovely study that overlooks the garden and could be used as a bedroom, if needed.

First Floor

Stairs rise to the landing where there is access to the loft space and doors leading off to the bathroom and bedrooms. You will find that both the bedrooms are double sized with windows to the side aspect. Bedroom two benefits from overhead storage, fitted wardrobes and further cupboard that house the combination boiler. The bathroom is fitted with a stylish modern suite consisting of pedestal wash hand basin, bath with a mixer tap, WC and large walk in shower cubicle with a mains shower and choice of shower head. The floor is laid in a wood effect vinyl.

Outside

Parking and Gardens

From the cul de sac, timber gates open to a drive that is laid to stone chippings and has room to park two cars comfortably. There is also a workshop (3.00 m x 2.79 m/9'10" x 9'2") and insulated work from home space (2.46 m x 2.79 m/8'1" x 9'2") that could be used for hobbies.

The main garden lies to the rear of the house, enjoying a southerly aspect and is surprisingly large. There is a generously sized paved sun terrace with room to host summer get-togethers with the rest of the garden being laid to lawn. You will find apple and pear trees, fruit cage and a variety of grasses. At the bottom of the garden there is a gate that opens to the brook. The garden is an absolute delight and benefits from good privacy in parts.
