

Stakesby Vale Court, Whitby, YO21

Guide Price £290,000

hendersons.
estate agents

Hendersons are delighted to bring to market this traditional stone-built cottage at Stakesby Vale Court. With beautifully maintained gardens and private parking it is conveniently situated on the edge of town.

Key Features

- Traditional Stone Built Cottage
- Spacious Kitchen/Diner
- Well proportioned Rooms
- Private Parking
- Garage
- Beautifully Maintained Cottage Gardens
- Situated on the edge of town with great access to local amenities

This characterful two-bedroomed cottage is set around a central courtyard and was redeveloped using the stone that formed part of the original farm buildings that once occupied this site many years ago.

Upon entering the property via the pretty porch entrance the hallway leads you on to the spacious kitchen/diner, ideal for those who enjoy cooking and entertaining, with traditional cabinetry in a neutral colour way, a practical kitchen island also features. There is also an integrated double oven with a gas hob and hot plate.

Just off the kitchen you will also find a useful W.C/Cloakroom.

Across the hallway the lounge is very spacious and light with feature fireplace and beamed ceilings adding yet further character to this well loved family home.

With two bedrooms, both doubles and a house bathroom comprising bath, wash basin & W.C. it would suit a variety of buyers including small families, couples or those simply seeking to downsize.

This property also includes private parking and a garage, adding to its convenience.

Externally the beautifully maintained cottage gardens offer a pretty outdoor space, perfect for enjoying sunnier days.

Situated on the edge of Whitby, the location provides great access to local amenities, making it easy to enjoy everything the town has to offer.

Contact a friendly member of the team at Hendersons today to arrange your viewing.

