- Three bedroom semi-detached dormer bungalow
- Spacious lounge with Town & Country Fires Stove
- Well planned kitchen with views over the rear garden
- Dining room or ideal home office
- Large rear garden with a greenhouse and patio area
- Large driveway and a useful garage/workshop

Nestled in the sought-after village of Goathland, this beautifully proportioned three-bedroom semi-detached dormer bungalow presents a rare opportunity to acquire a versatile and generously sized home in one of the North York Moors' most desirable locations.

Offering excellent kerb appeal and set within a substantial plot, the property boasts a large, well-maintained garden — perfect for family life, gardening enthusiasts or those seeking tranquil outdoor space. Inside, the accommodation is spacious and thoughtfully laid out, with light-filled rooms that enjoy pleasant views over the garden and surrounding countryside.

The flexible layout includes a generous living area, well-appointed kitchen, three comfortable bedrooms, and ample storage throughout. A private driveway provides off-street parking and leads to a detached garage, offering additional storage or workshop potential.

Located within walking distance of local amenities and surrounded by breathtaking moorland scenery, this charming home combines rural tranquility with everyday convenience. Whether you're looking for a family home, retirement retreat, or a countryside escape, this property ticks all the boxes.
