Situated in a popular residential location, this semi-detached house on Stonecross Road offers a practical and affordable home. With three bedrooms and a converted loft, it provides ample living space for families.

The property features underfloor heating to the ground floor, adding comfort throughout the colder months. The lounge with feature fireplace is light and spacious and to the rear of the property the kitchen is practical in design and offers integrated dishwasher and under counter fridge. There are two spacious double bedrooms to the first floor and a comfortable single from where the converted loft space can also be accessed - here you will find lots of useful under eaves storage.

The modern house bathroom comprises bath with separate corner shower, wash basin and W.C.

The inclusion of a separate utility room that was once formed part of the garage supports convenient living, offering additional storage and functionality.

Externally, there is a low maintenance rear garden with raised patio area and a lawned area to the front with driveway.

Its proximity to local schools and shops ensures that all essential amenities are within easy reach, making it ideal for families or first-time buyers.
