Key Features

- Sea views
- Four bedrooms
- Huge garden
- Gas central heating
- Garage
- Short walk to the beach

An impressive family home with views over the golf course and out to sea. This four-bed house is extremely spacious throughout and features a spectacular garden to enjoys the views from.

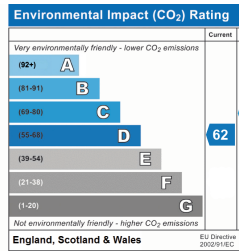

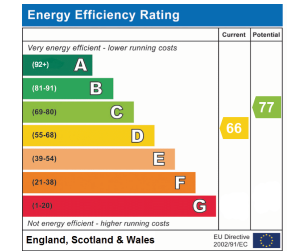

Over two floors, the ground floor offers a welcoming entrance hall with a shower room with W.C just off, a large reception room and an open plan kitchen/lounge/diner room that includes a log burning stove as well as a shaker style kitchen with wooden work tops and Belfast sink. Accessed from the kitchen there is a sunroom with double doors to the garden that connects the garage and useful utility room to the house.

Up the stairs, to the first floor there are three double bedrooms as well as single bedroom together with a family bathroom that includes a shower, w.c and hand basin. Outside, the beautiful garden is well established and offers mature plants, fruit trees, vegetable plots as well as various green houses and summer houses. The larger than average sized garage has private parking in front as well as having additional on street parking available.

Located on the western side of Whitby, the property offers the best of town, country and coastal living. In just minutes, you can be strolling on the beach between Whitby and Sandsend, walking through the moorlands, or heading into town for shopping and food.
