Hendersons are pleased to present this substantial five-bedroom family residence, set within a peaceful rural environment and offering an excellent balance of space, comfort, and countryside living. Well suited to families looking for a long-term home, the property provides generous accommodation throughout.

The home features three versatile reception rooms, ideal for both everyday living and hosting guests. A welcoming sense of character runs through the property, with charming log-burning fires in the lounge and kitchen adding warmth and atmosphere.

There are two well-designed bathrooms, thoughtfully laid out to meet the demands of family life and ensure practicality without compromising on comfort. Surrounded by open countryside, the setting offers a calm and scenic lifestyle, perfect for those seeking a quieter pace away from urban life.

More than just a rental property, this is a place to truly settle and call home. For anyone searching for a spacious family house in the attractive village of Ugthorpe, this property is well worth a closer look.
