Description

Guide price £475,000 - £500,000

Located in this quiet cul-de-sac just off the prestigious Old Bedford Road, is this three bedroom detached new build family home being offered to the market without the complications of an onward chain.

As you enter you will be greeted by beautiful Herringbone flooring which gives access into either the w/c, utility room that has access to the side of the building, bay-fronted lounge or into the heart of the home which is the large kitchen/ diner. This home has a Häcker kitchen installed, fitted with integrated appliances and stone worktops as well as ample cupboard space. On the first floor you will find three generous size bedrooms and a family bathroom. Its also worth mentioning the high ceiling heights and custom internal doors.

Externally the property offers off road parking and a private rear garden.

The area is highly regarded by families as schools locally have excellent reputations plus Luton train station which has fast links to London is within 3/4 of a mile. Wardown Park is just across the road with lovely landscaped gardens, tennis courts, museum plus shops and other amenities are all nearby.
