BLISSFULLY BEAUTIFUL... is exactly what came to mind when we first set eyes on this two bedroom barn conversion. This home offers the full package if you seek tranquil living in a home nestled only a short drive away from local towns and major transport links such as the M1. This stunning barn conversion boast vaulted ceilings, exposed brick walls and characteristic fixtures throughout and it's definitely not one to miss!

You'll first step into the lounge which is nothing short of show stopping, the vaulted beamed ceiling and exposed brick fireplace really set the tone for the amount of character and beauty this home has to offer. Heading off from here you'll find the kitchen which continues with the country feel having vaulted beamed ceiling and a stunning traditional shaker style kitchen, this room is perfect for hosting friends with plenty of space for a dining table and chairs. There is even double doors leading outside which you can open up in the summer and let the sun shine through.

Off the lounge you will find a staircase which leads to the Mezzanine which is a versatile space that is currently being used a studio, but could very easily become a bedroom space.

Let's take a look at the bedrooms, there are two in total which are well proportioned and positioned just down the inner hallway, the master room has the added benefit of double doors which can be opened up on sunny Sunday morning whilst enjoying a coffee in bed. To complete the property is a bathroom which is tastefully decorated throughout, not to mention the 'Jacuzzi' bath.

The property occupies a great plot which is lovingly landscaped with patios, lawns and decorative borders; we're advised it's quite a sun trap. Further to this is off street parking and a garage.

Kitchen 18'5" 11'5"

Complete with stunning traditional shaker style wall, base and drawer units with contracting white work surfaces above and an inset sink and drainer unit. Complete with stylist tiled splash backs and boasting vaulted ceiling with beautiful beams. There is space and plumbing for a freestanding oven and fridge freezer along with an integrated dishwasher. The room is finished with tiled flooring, a central heating radiator, a window to the side space and double doors to the garden for convenience.

Lounge 16'5" 17'7"

The major focus of this room has to be the eye-catching brick built fireplace and chimney breast that continues to the valued beamed ceiling. There is a real sense of space and light with the high ceilings and the window and double doors facing the front aspect. Further to this is wood flooring, two radiators and stairs off to the mezzanine.

Inner Hallway
