GUIDE PRICE £375,000 to £395,000

WELCOME HOME!...Have you been searching for the perfect home to call your own? The search ends here with this stunning three-bedroom semi-detached property, nestled beautifully in a rural location boasting delightful countryside views. Not to mention a spacious and well-kept interior, we are confident you will love this property as much as we do!

Upon entry you'll immediately be greeted by the entrance porch, from here there is a fantastic lounge with a great sense of space, filled with that important warm and homely feel. This space offers a great amount of room for your furnishings and will certainly become a great spot for entertaining. Just next door, presents an additional reception room with the added benefit of sliding doors leading nicely to the rear garden, perfect for easy access to the garden in the summer. The kitchen is equally as superb too, fitted with a range of matching wall and base units providing plentiful storage, together with a work surface allowing ample preparation space for showcasing your cooking skills. Together with an integrated oven and microwave adding a sleek finish. Completing this floor is a handy cupboard with an abundance of space for your cleaning supplies. Together with a well-sized shower room fitted with a contemporary suite in white.

The first floor boasts three lovingly presented bedrooms, all of which offer a great canvas for you to add your own personal style. Let's not forget the useful WC just off from the landing.

Outside reflects this property perfectly with a larger than average plot, presenting a driveway for off-road parking for multiple vehicles and idyllic rear garden offering a vast amount of potential for an extension (subject to planning permission). You'll find the outdoor space is fantastic for sitting back and appreciating the surrounding scenery. Early viewing is absolutely essential!
