STYLISH LIVING!...You're going to love this gorgeous three-bedroom detached home, which has been immaculately presented from top to bottom with a twist of modern and homely features that will have you in awe from the moment you step inside. Not only that, but this excellent family home stands beautifully on an enviable plot with instant kerb appeal and a driveway to the front allowing convenient off-street parking; it certainly ticks all the boxes!

Firstly, let's start with the welcoming and spacious hallway, which sets a wonderful tone, before exploring the rest of the accommodation. Starting with the bright and airy living room to your left that has been decorated in a complementary colour palette. Providing an excellent space for you to sit back and unwind. The kitchen is certainly one of our many favourite features in this home. Fitted with a range of modern units and a centre island with a delightful breakfast bar. The kitchen area features velux windows and bi-fold doors that lead seamlessly out to the rear garden, creating an excellent indoor-outdoor feel. The adjoining dining area offers a great amount of space for family meals, complete with additional units and a second Belfast sink.

On the first floor, you will find three well-appointed bedrooms, which have all been immaculately presented. Boasting style and space in abundance, together with the luxury of an en-suite facility in the master bedroom and a fitted wardrobe, this space is finished perfectly.

Outside will be certain to keep you hooked, boasting a fantastic garden to the rear with a beautifully landscaped garden featuring an artificial lawn, a patio area, large storage shed with power and lighting, and decorative slate chippings. The converted garage currently serves as a home salon/gym, showcasing ample versatility. The property also has the added advantage of a driveway with off-road parking space for two vehicles.
