CHARMING & CHARACTERFUL... is the only way we can describe this impressive five bedroom detached period cottage dating back to 1769. Situated in the beautiful location of Wellow, a pretty village close to Sherwood Forest and Rufford Park, this lovely home is positioned well and stands prominently on this extremely sought after road, close to the traditional village green and within walking distance to both village pubs, an independent school and the historic 12th century St Swithin parish church.

This superb property has been fully renovated throughout and you can clearly see both the time and effort that the current owners have put in to making this wonderful cottage the beautiful home it is today. This picturesque property oozes charm and has many traditional features throughout. Internally comprising: three reception rooms, two with fully working chimneys, a beautiful kitchen with solid wood worktops and a large range cooker, four double bedrooms and one single. There is an impressive master bedroom, a spacious en-suite and a good sized family bathroom with a free-standing bath.

Outside to the rear there is a private and enclosed back garden which has been beautifully landscaped and enjoys views of the village church. To the side there is off-road driveway parking and a single garage. UPVC double glazing and gas central heating. Call today to arrange a viewing!
