CHARMING AND CHARACTERFUL!... We proudly welcome you to this picturesque cottage-style residence, packed with traditional features. If this is what you've been looking for, then you really do need to come and take a closer look at this little charmer!...

Internally, you will first be greeted by the inviting reception room, which has a gorgeous fireplace housing a multi-fuel burner... Just imagine relaxing here with the fire on, on those cold winter evenings! In addition, the dining area boasts incredible views of fields just across the way. This is the perfect spot to enjoy your morning cup of tea! Moving through to the kitchen, you'll find a wonderful range of cabinetry and units, with complementary work surfaces above. There is also plenty of space for all of your appliances. The stable door completes this room and adds a touch of character, keeping the traditional theme alive!

Moving on to the first floor, there are two well-proportioned bedrooms. The master has excellent views over the local countryside. The bathroom is nicely appointed and presented with a three-piece suite. Just when you think you have seen it all, you will then find the brilliant loft space, which is accessed via the second bedroom and has two large Velux windows, allowing for natural lighting. This room is currently being utilised as a bedroom.

We have already mentioned that the outside space benefits from some off-street parking, but further to this, there is a tiered garden, with wall boundaries that are again in keeping with this home. If this property is for you, call today to arrange a viewing!
