A STAND OUT PROPERTY!

Situated on a generous corner plot in a sought-after Mansfield area, this spacious 1930s semi-detached home blends original features with modern updates. Benefitting from ample parking, excellent transport links to Nottingham, and is within walking distance of a top-rated primary school and local amenities.

The front door opens into a quarry tiled porch area and continues into the hallway which has the original close boarded wooden floor and a useful under stairs storage area. The large dining room has a living flame gas fire set into the original 1930's fire surround and bay windows making the room unusually spacious. Next door the cozy sitting room features a multifuel burner for those winter evenings and door to the rear patio perfect for summer entertaining.

The extended, light-filled kitchen offers matching cabinets, integrated appliances, and a dining space under a glass ceiling with garden access. Adjoining the kitchen are a practical utility room with inset sink, ample storage units and space for appliances and a separate downstairs WC.

Upstairs the spacious landing leads to the three bedrooms, two with original fireplaces. The main bedroom features a bay window making it a light and spacious room. The second bedroom has pine fitted cupboards to one side whilst still being very roomy and the third bedroom is surprisingly well-sized. The modernised family bathroom is fitted with a white three-piece suite.

The property stands back from the road with a block-paved driveway to the front with parking for several vehicles and large shrub borders. There is a paved area to the side with bin storage space and an outside tap. To the rear is an enclosed garden with lawn, charming patio area, shed and greenhouse. A second driveway leads to the large garage/workshop and provides further off-street parking.
