ONE OF A KIND!

Nestled on the historic Alfreton Road in Newton, this splendid detached house, built in 1640, offers a unique blend of period charm and modern convenience. With five spacious bedrooms and three well-appointed bathrooms, this property is perfect for families seeking both comfort and style. Let me show you around...

As you enter the ground floor, you are greeted by a versatile study room. The first reception room boasts a traditional fireplace, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere, ideal for cosy evenings with family or entertaining guests. The second reception room, bathed in natural light, provides a versatile space that can be used as a formal dining area or a relaxing lounge, depending on your needs. Next you will find an open plan kitchen/diner which is fully equipped to suit your needs! From here you will find a rear cloakroom, utility and downstairs bathroom.

Moving up to the first floor, you will find two generously sized bedrooms, each offering a peaceful retreat. There is also a room which the current owners have as an office but could make a sixth bedroom if needed. The master bedroom features an en-suite bathroom and built in wardrobes for added convenience. There is also a family bathroom located just off the landing.

The second floor hosts an additional three bedrooms, all offering a great canvas to make your own.

Outside, the house is set within a charming garden, providing a delightful space for outdoor activities or simply enjoying the fresh air. The historic character of the property is complemented by its modern amenities, making it a truly exceptional home.

This home is without a doubt an ideal choice for those seeking a spacious family home in a picturesque setting.
