HOME TO TREASURE!

Nestled in the peaceful and sought-after area of Boughton, this charming three-bedroom barn conversion perfectly blends comfort, style, and practicality. Beautifully presented throughout, it offers spacious single-level living ideal for families or those seeking a quiet retreat.

Step inside to a well-appointed kitchen featuring oak cabinets, quartz work surfaces, and elegant tiled flooring with underfloor heating. There's space for an American-style fridge, integrated appliances, and plenty of storage. A practical utility room with matching oak units provides plumbing for a washing machine, space for a tumble dryer, and direct access to the rear courtyard garden.

The home flows seamlessly into a bright, open-plan lounge and dining area—ideal for modern living. The dining space features attractive Elka oak flooring with room for a large family table, while the inviting lounge includes a feature fireplace with a gas log-burner effect fire and a large bay window that floods the room with natural light, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

Down the inner hallway is a modern family bathroom, two well-proportioned bedrooms (one currently used as a home office), and the spacious master bedroom suite. The master enjoys a private ensuite with a stylish four-piece suite and a fully fitted dressing room—adding a touch of everyday luxury.

Outside, the property continues to impress. A large gravel driveway provides ample parking and access to a double garage with generous storage. The front garden is beautifully landscaped with mature planting, established trees, and delightful countryside views. To the rear, an enclosed, low-maintenance garden offers paved patio seating areas and mature shrubs—perfect for relaxing or entertaining.

A superb opportunity to own a beautifully presented home in a tranquil setting—ready to move into and enjoy from day one!
