DESCRIPTION

Enfield Villa is a charming Victorian home, situated in the sought after area of Fearnhead is offered for sale with no onward chain. It provides three/four bedrooms, three reception rooms, extensive gardens, a garage and outbuildings. It is within walking distance of local schools and has good local transport links.

Entrance to this double fronted property is via the hallway which leads to the well proportioned ground floor accommodation. The lounge and kitchen/dining room are to the front with the family room, shower room, utility area and wc to the rear. There are three spacious bedrooms and a bedroom/shower room on the first floor. Many of the original Victorian features have been retained.

This home has huge potential to become a fabulous family home and to be extended (Subject to the necessary planning).

GARDEN

The property sits within a large garden with a garage and outbuildings along one boundary. It has a long driveway from Tweedsmuir Close to provide plentiful parking. The garden currently provides extensive lawns, mature trees and shrubs giving good screening from the properties on Tweedsmuir Close. The large side garden has potential for the house to be extended or be developed as a self contained residential building. Any such extension or development would be subject to planning permission.
