SITE INFORMATION

Site Clearance: The successful developer will be responsible for demolishing the existing Clubhouse & structures on the site and undertaking the site clearance post completion of a sale.

Site Investigations: No site investigations have been commissioned by Bream RFC. Consent will be provided under licence for any site investigation surveys required as part of any planning application preparation.

Services: Mains Water & drainage and electricity have been connected to the former Clubhouse building. All interested parties should satisfy themselves to the availability and connection costs for all mains services & utilities to the site and rely upon their own enquiries.

Retained Access: Bream RFC are to retain the benefit of a right of vehicular access, at all times and for all purposes, to their retained land for accessing the new Clubhouse site & parking and existing rugby pitches. The access specification is to be agreed with the successful developer and to be constructed by the developer when the site is developed out.

Wayleaves & Easements & Rights of Way: Bream RFC will retain the right for all appropriate wayleaves & easements required for the connection of services & utilities to serve their retained land. The supply and connection of any required services & utilities to the retained land when the development site is being built out will be discussed with the successful developer to prevent any future interruption for the connection of utilities.
