SITUATION

The property is nestled in a quiet cul-de-sac in Trelights. A popular hamlet between the stunning coastal inlet of Port Quin and the vibrant fishing village of Port Isaac. Port Isaac itself has a thriving community and offers a range of local facilities and amenities including a doctors' surgery, primary school, public houses and excellent restaurants including the Michelin starred restaurant run by Nathan Outlaw. The former market town of Wadebridge is 6.6 miles away and sits astride the River Camel offering a wide range of shops, primary and secondary educational facilities, cinema, restaurants and access to the popular Camel Cycle Trail.

DESCRIPTION

Offered to the market with no onward chain this three bedroom, detached bungalow benefits from off-road parking, garage, conservatory and front and rear gardens.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door leads into an entrance hall which gives access to two large storage cupboards, WC, shower room, three bedrooms, kitchen, conservatory and open plan sitting/dining room. In the shower room there is a low-level WC, wash hand basin with mixer tap, wall-mounted towel rail and corner shower. Bedrooms one and two are doubles with a window overlooking the rear garden. Bedroom one also benefits from a variety of fitted furniture. Bedroom three has a window overlooking the conservatory and side garden and could be used as a study or a small double bedroom.

The kitchen has a range of base and wall units, sink with mixer tap, space for an oven, dishwasher and fridge and window to the side with distant countryside views. The L-shaped sitting/dining room has a stone fireplace with electric fire, doors to the conservatory, two large windows facing the front garden and a full-length window to the side.

OUTSIDE

The driveway has space for multiple cars and the garage has an up and over door, light, power and plumbing for appliances. The front garden is mostly laid to lawn with a hedge border and a gravel path leading to the front door and side garden. The rear garden is mostly laid to lawn with a patio area, mature shrubs and trees surrounding and a summer house to the right.
