SITUATION

The property is located in the hamlet of Tregaddock, near the delightful village of St Mabyn, known for its community feel and welcoming country pub, the St Mabyn Inn. The village also offers a primary school, community-run shop/post office, village hall and church. More extensive amenities can be found in the thriving, former market town of Wadebridge, which sits astride the River Camel and offers a wide variety of shops together with a secondary school, cinema and access to the popular Camel Trail cycle route, linking Wadebridge with the picturesque coastal fishing town of Padstow. Within 10 miles of the property is the North Cornwall coastline and well-known watersports havens such as Polzeath, Daymer Bay and Rock. To the east is the splendour of Bodmin Moor designated as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The mainline railway station at Bodmin Parkway connects with London Paddington, whilst Newquay Airport provides a number of scheduled flights to both domestic and international destinations.

DESCRIPTION

The Coach House is a beautifully presented period property offering a wealth of character and versatile accommodation. This former coach house is located in a peaceful rural location on the outskirts of St Mabyn and boasts glorious gardens and character features.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door leads into the conservatory with a second stable door into the entrance hall. The hallway provides access to Bedroom Two, a shower room and steps down to the sitting/dining room. Bedroom Two benefits from a built-in wardrobe and the shower room offers a low-level WC, wash-hand basin, walk-in shower and a heated towel rail. The sitting/dining room boasts a decorative feature fireplace with stone hearth, a bay window with window seat, built-in shelving and access to the kitchen/breakfast room, Bedroom Three, currently used as a gym and Bedroom 6, currently used as a study. The farmhouse style kitchen offers a range of base and wall units, an electric four-oven Aga, double sink with mixer tap and space for a dishwasher and appliances. From the kitchen is the pantry/store room and the library. The library has a split-level staircase leading to a second study which has its own access via a stable door to the front of the house and the galleried drawing room which boasts exposed A-framed beams and a large fireplace with a log burning stove and slate hearth.

To the right of the drawing room is the laundry room and family bathroom. The laundry room has built-in shelving and space and plumbing for appliances. The family bathroom offers a corner bath with overhead shower, vanity basin and low-level WC. The landing has two built-in cupboards and access to Bedrooms One and Four. Bedroom One is a generous dual aspect double room and Bedroom Four has the added benefit of a built-in wardrobe.

OUTSIDE

On approach to the property is a gated driveway with a small side garden, parking for multiple vehicles and a double carport. The main garden/paddock is nearby and measures just under 0.5 acres. The garden has been beautifully landscaped with an array of fruit trees, vegetable plots, a herb garden, wild flower meadow and a summer house. At the end of the garden is a field shelter and a gate allowing vehicular access from the road.
