SITUATION

Riverside is located in the popular moorland village of St Breward. The thriving village offers a range of amenities such as the renowned Old Inn, village school, community shop and Parish church. On the outskirts of St Breward is the Camel Trail which runs along the banks of the River Camel through Wadebridge and on to the picturesque fishing village of Padstow. For any keen ramblers, an array of beautiful countryside walks are available on your doorstep.

The town of Bodmin is 8 miles to the south with a range of amenities and there is a direct link to London Paddington from Bodmin Parkway. The estuary town of Wadebridge, is just over 10 miles away and offers a wide range of shops, primary and secondary schools, cinema, restaurants and access to the popular Camel Trail. Newquay airport provides a number of scheduled flights to both domestic and international destinations and can be accessed via the A39.

ACCOMMODATION

On entrance you are greeted by the warm and welcoming sitting room, which gives access to the kitchen and stairs to the first floor, with a storage cupboard below. The sitting room boasts a dual aspect with a window seat to the front, exposed beams, clome oven and fireplace with a log burner, slate hearth and exposed stonework. The kitchen benefits from a dual aspect, range of base and wall units, space for appliances and sink with a mixer tap. From here, you can access the side garden and downstairs bathroom. The bathroom has a low level WC, wash hand basin, wall mounted heated towel rail and bath.

Stairs rise to the double bedroom and are flooded with light by a rustic, cottage style window. Relaxing sounds from the nearby stream can be heard from the bedroom, it also benefits from two storage cupboards, exposed beams, window with a window seat and an ensuite shower room. The ensuite has an electric shower, vanity basin with mixer tap, low level WC, wall mounted heated towel rail and exposed floorboards.

OUTSIDE

A stone bridge leads to the front patio garden, which has flower beds with an array of shrubs and plants. A path leads to the side garden, where there is a raised, private shingle seating area.
