SITUATION

The property is situated in the historic village St Teath. It has a primary school, local café, church and charming pub just a stone's throw away. The popular town of Wadebridge is 7.5 miles away and offers a wide variety of shops, eateries and the famous Camel Trail, stretching along the beautiful estuary to Padstow. You can also visit the famous fishing village of Port Isaac, which is only 5.4 miles away. There are frequent buses that run all over North Cornwall and mainline railway services from Bodmin Parkway. Newquay airport has a number of domestic and international flights scheduled daily.

ACCOMMODATION

From the spacious entrance hall you can access the kitchen/dining room, bedroom one, WC and shower room. The kitchen/ dining room boasts a dual aspect, base and wall units, space for white goods and a door leading to the porch currently used as a storage space. Bedroom one has space for a king size bed, two windows to the front and ample space for wardrobes and drawers. The shower room has a walk in, electric shower, wall mounted heated towel rail and a wash hand basin. Next door is the WC and airing cupboard which houses the water tank.

From the secondary hall you have the sitting room and bedroom two. Bedroom two has a window to the side and space for a double bed. The generous sitting room has an electric fire, window to the side and French doors leading into the conservatory which flood the room with light. You can access the rear garden from the conservatory if desired.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the property, the garden is laid to lawn with mature shrubs and bushes as a boarder. There is off-road parking for multiple vehicles and a single garage with electricity connected. Gates on either side of the property lead to the rear garden which is mostly laid to lawn, with a raised flower bed to the back. Surrounding the conservatory is a patio area, perfect for entertaining.
