SITUATION

The property is situated in the historic and picturesque fishing town of Padstow which offers an extensive range of cafes, public houses and restaurants, none more so than Paul Ainsworth's Michelin starred No.6, seafood bar Prawn On The Lawn, and of course Rick Steins esteemed Seafood restaurant. Traditionally a fishing port, Padstow is also a popular tourist destination where many enjoy exploring the harbour front and Camel Trail link to Wadebridge. The Seven Bays sandy beaches are nearby and are a haven for surfing and other water sports. Wadebridge is within eight miles and on the river Camel, which offers a fine selection of shops and amenities including a sports centre, cinema, primary and secondary school and a selection of supermarkets.

DESCRIPTION

Currently used as a successful holiday let and being offered to the market with no onward chain, this impressive 3 bedroom end of terrace property could make an ideal family home or investment. The property is within a short distance of Padstow town, the harbour and the Camel Estuary.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door leads into the entrance hall with access to the sitting room which is open through to the kitchen/dining room. The sitting room features a gas fire with a wooden surround and has built-in shelving. The open plan kitchen/dining room is a lovely size and enjoys double doors leading to the rear garden. The kitchen benefits from a range of wall and base units, built in oven with a hob and extractor hood over, sink, and space for appliances. A door from the kitchen leads into the utility room with space for appliances and a further door leading into a shower room with a WC and wash hand basin.

The first floor landing has access to three bedrooms and the family bathroom. The bathroom offers a bath, shower, WC and a wash hand basin.

Bedroom 1 is a delightful size and enjoys an aspect to the front and benefits from a window seat which enjoys the views across to the Camel estuary.

The further two bedrooms are a double and single.

OUTSIDE

To the front there is a small area of front garden with shrubs and a path leading to the front door.

To the rear the property enjoys an enclosed rear garden laid with patio and gravel, shrubs and a palm tree. Steps leads up to a further decked terrace providing an ideal setting for al fresco dining and enjoy views across to the Camel estuary.
