A reputation you can rely on

When it comes to buying your new home it is reassuring to know that you are dealing with one of the most successful companies in the country, with a reputation built on designing and creating fine houses and apartments nationwide backed up with one of the industry's best after-care services.

In 1946 John and Russell Bell, newly demobbed, joined their father John T. Bell in a small family owned housebuilding business in Newcastle upon Tyne. From the very beginning John T. Bell & Sons, as the new company was called, were determined to break the mould. In the early 1950s Kenneth Bell joined his brothers in the company and new approaches to design layout and finishes were developed. In 1963 John T. Bell & Sons became part of the public corporate scene and the name Bellway evolved.

Over 60 years of great homes and great service

Today Bellway is one of Britain's largest house building companies and is continuing to grow throughout the country. Since its formation, Bellway has built and sold over 100,000 homes catering for first time buyers to more seasoned home buyers and their families. The Group's rapid growth has turned Bellway into a multi-million pound company, employing over 2,000 people directly and many more sub-contractors. From its original base in Newcastle upon Tyne the Group has expanded in to all regions of the country and is now poised for further growth.

Our homes are designed, built and marketed by local teams operating from regional offices managed and staffed by local people. This allows the company to stay close to its customers and take key decisions about design, build, materials, planning and marketing in response to local and not national demands. A simple point, but one which we believe distinguishes Bellway.

A unique mix of culture, retail and leisure

Bellway Homes are delighted to introduce Fardalehill. A development of beautifully designed 3 and 4 bedroom family homes located in Kilmarnock. Situated in the heart of Ayrshire, the ideal location of this development means the best Scotland has to offer is right on your doorstep.

Home to the largest Burns monument in Scotland, Kilmarnock is an exciting town blending a unique mix of culture, retail and leisure. The town centre itself is well known for its retail offering with a wide range of independent boutique stores sitting side by side with the familiar high street brands. The farmers' market with its vast array of local produce held on the third Saturday of each month in Foregate Square completes the shopping experience. A lovely choice of local pubs, restaurants and cafés within the town centre provide much needed breaks from retail therapy.

Kilmarnock's cultural offerings are just as plentiful as its shopping opportunities. The charming cobbled Bank Street sitting in the town's historic core, along with the elegant John Finnie Street boasts some of the best provincial Victorian architecture in Scotland. The Dick Institute and Palace Theatre is the ideal place to visit if you are looking for a little culture or perhaps venture into the beautiful setting of Kay Park to visit the Burns Monument Centre. All this is just 5 minutes from your doorstep.

Slightly further afield Glasgow beckons. Scotland's second city is around a 35 minute drive from Fardalehill. Renowned for its culture, style and the friendliness of its people, Glasgow offers a blend of internationally acclaimed museums and galleries, stunning architecture, vibrant nightlife, fantastic shopping and a diverse array of restaurants and bars. The perfect place to get away from it all after a hard week at work.

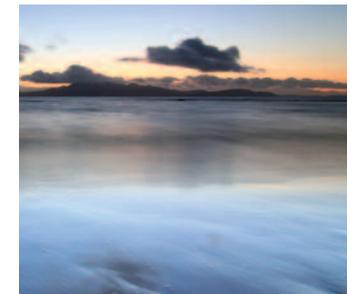

A little closer to home, day-to-day convenience is provided for with a Tesco Superstore located just 2 miles away. For families, there are a number of schools close by including Annanhill Primary School,

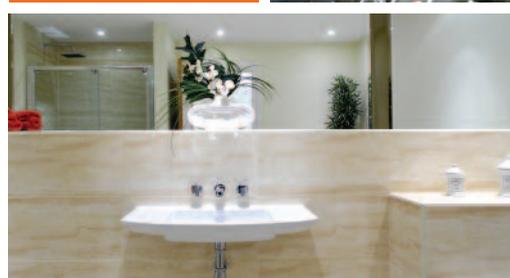

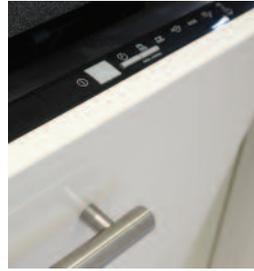

Grange Academy Secondary School and Park School providing both primary and secondary education. The Galleon Leisure Centre further contributes to the facilities close to the development. With a swimming pool, ice rink, bowling hall as well as sports halls, squash courts and superb fitness suite, there is something for all the family.

With such fantastic facilities, it's no surprise that the transport connections are excellent at Fardalehill. The A71 and A77, both close by, provide excellent road links. Kilmarnock railway station is just a 5 minute drive from the development and offers a regular half hourly service into Glasgow Central, getting you into the city in around 35 minutes. For international travel, Glasgow Airport is just 35 minutes away.

If you like to get away from it all, you needn't travel far. The superb location of Fardalehill blends the best of urban and rural. Visit Dean Castle and Country Park to relax and unwind in the peace and quiet. Within 200 acres lies beautiful woodland walks and a 14th century castle as well as an adventure playground and tearoom – perfect for all the family.

Fardalehill offers it all. Excellent local amenities, great transport links and direct and easy access to the city of Glasgow, all complemented by beautifully designed Bellway family homes.

Customer Care

Our dedicated Customer Care department will ensure your move to a new Bellway home is as smooth as possible

For over sixty years the name Bellway has been synonymous with quality craftsmanship and quality homes; we are justifiably proud of this reputation and work hard to provide you with a home that meets with your dreams.

From the day a customer visits our sales centre to the move-in day we aim to provide a level of service and after-sales care that is second to none.

In recognising the close involvement our customers seek in purchasing their new homes we deliberately gear our sales hand-over process to involve our customers at every possible opportunity. Firstly all our homes are quality checked by our site managers and sales advisors. Customers are then invited to pre-occupation visits; this provides a valuable opportunity for homeowners to understand the various running aspects of their new home. On the move-in day our site and sales personnel will be there to ensure that the move-in is achieved as smoothly as possible.

Providing customer care and building quality homes is good business sense. However, we are aware that errors do occur and it has always been our intention to minimise inconvenience and resolve any outstanding issues at the earliest opportunity. In managing this process we have after sales teams and a Customer Care centre that is specifically tasked to respond to all customer complaints.

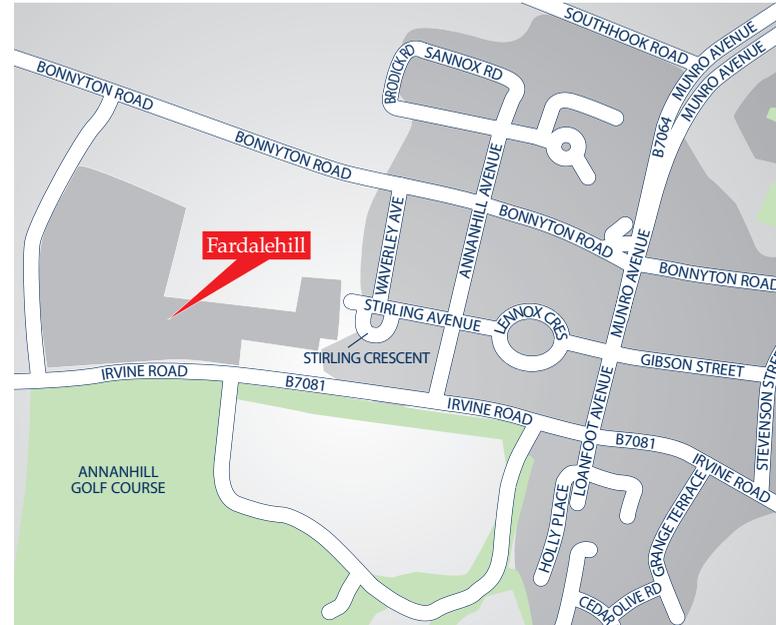

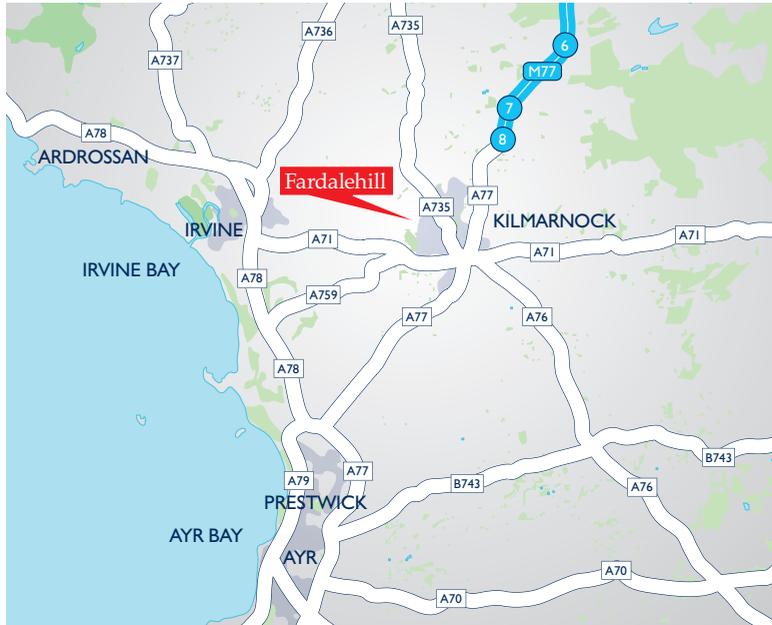

We have a 24 hour emergency helpline and provide a comprehensive information pack that details the working aspects of a new home; a 10 year NHBC warranty provides further peace of mind.

We are confident that our approach to building and selling new homes coupled with our Customer Care programme will provide you with many years of enjoyment in your new home.
