Hitherwood Close, Reigate

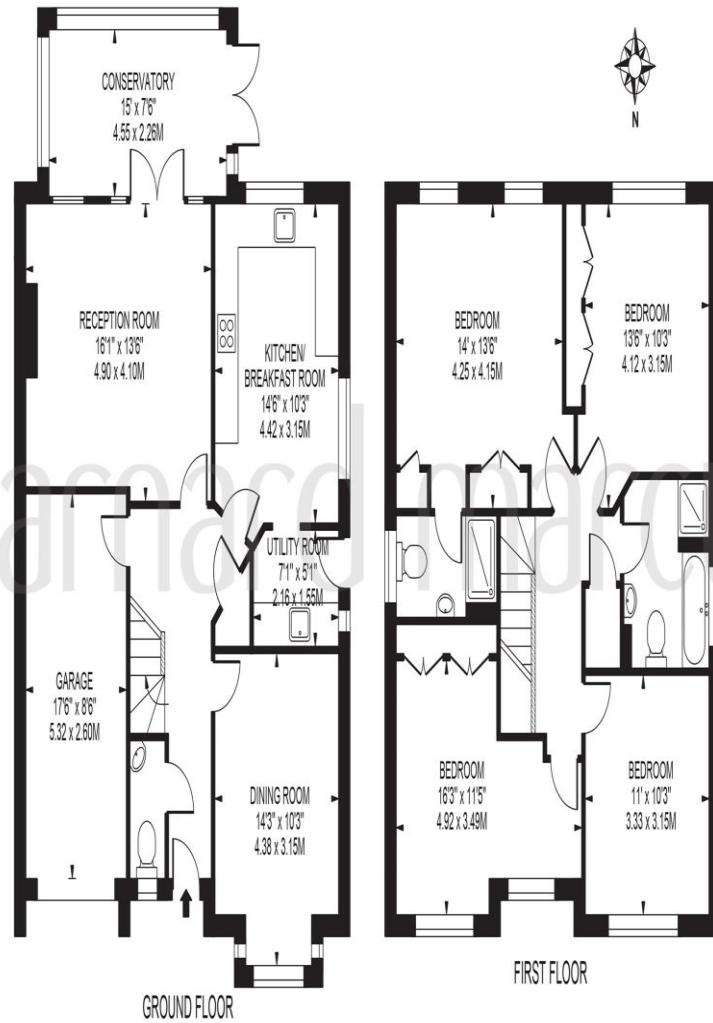

This detached four bedroom is situated at the end of a private close in one of Reigate's most established and sought-after residential areas. The property offers a generous balance of living and bedroom space with a well-tended garden. You have the convenience of being within easy reach of Redhill and Reigate town centres, mainline Railway station, private and state schools and open countryside. This lovely home is designed with the family life in mind. The ground floor accommodation includes a front living room, dining room, kitchen, conservatory, downstairs cloakroom, utility room and access to the southerly facing garden. Upstairs is composed of four generously sized double bedrooms with master bedroom en-suite and four-piece family bathroom. Reigate Town Centre is within easy reach offering a range of shops, restaurants and everyday amenities. Priory Park and Wray Common, with its open green spaces, playground and café is also nearby as highly regarded schools including Reigate Grammar, Holmesdale, Reigate Priory and St Bedes secondary school within very close proximity. You also have easy accessibility to Redhill and Reigate Stations with direct access into London and the M25 is a short drive away. This property represents an opportunity to acquire a detached family home in a prime Reigate setting, combining space, practicality and a location that brings together both town and country side living.
