Church View

Brauncewell

A private and secluded equestrian holding extending to 1.79 acres with spacious living and excellent entertaining space and the potential for a detached annexe.

DESCRIPTION

Tucked away down a quiet lane, yet within easy reach of local transport links, this splendid home enjoys ample outdoor space, landscaped grounds and attractive equestrian facilities while benefitting from open rural views over the surrounding countryside.

The living accommodation on offer briefly includes an open-plan country kitchen with bifold doors and an adjoining utility room. The main lounge has a log burner and is complemented by a conservatory at one end, together with a home office at the other. There is a further ground floor reception room that is presently used as a dining room. Upstairs there are four double bedrooms. The master bedroom enjoys a dressing room and an ensuite.

OUTSIDE

The principal residence benefits from an in-and-out double entrance with an extensive paved driveway providing ample space for parking for multiple vehicles. There are front lawns, together with an additional side lawn that provides an excellent space for outdoor entertaining.

The rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn with a kitchen garden. There is a double garage attached to the main dwelling, together a more recently constructed double garage with an attached outbuilding and a generous living space that's ideal for a range of uses including a home cinema, games room or more extensive office space. This entire structure would also be ideal for a more comprehensive conversion to an additional self-contained annexe, subject to planning.

East of the main house is an established cattery which is still in operation and could either be included as a going concern, or wound up in advance of the completion of the sale. Three stables are situated alongside another entrance off the lane, with a fenced paddock providing grazing.

LOCATION

The village of Brauncewell is perfect for rural living. The area is full of historic buildings including a small church. The nearby village of Navenby enjoys local services including an award winning butcher, Co-Op foodstore, bakery, two pubs, pharmacy, antiques centre, Indian and Chinese take-aways, barbers, beauty and hair salon, fish and chip shop, dress agency, tea rooms and a very active Village Hall.

Sleaford is situated just under 5 miles away and offers local residents an attractive, busy market town promoting traditional values whilst encouraging a thriving community. The River Slea and Sleaford Canal run through the heart of the town centre creating a pleasant retailing environment. There are many historic buildings in the town with St Denys Church having one of the oldest broach spires in England.

There are plenty of activities and events on offer for all members of the family. The Charity Raft Race and The Water Festival are held annually with music and entertainment. There is an indoor play centre in Sleaford for younger family members and the town centre provides a wide range of amenities with plenty of shops, banks, pubs and cafes. Supermarkets in Sleaford include Tesco, Sainsbury, Lidl and Aldi. The thrice weekly market offers a range of stalls selling fresh produce, flowers and clothes. Buses operate regularly to the town centre. There is a popular leisure centre with large swimming pool and separate children's pool with water activities.
