Never before offered onto the market until now, this glorious self-build has been meticulously built to the highest level, offering all the benefits of twenty first century construction methods with the added benefit of Georgian stature and refinement. Accommodation briefly includes a formal drawing room and dining room, together with a more relaxing sitting room and a stunning Vale garden room that complements a luxury Smallbone bespoke kitchen alongside it. A large utility is also located on the ground floor, as well as a downstairs shower room/W.C.

The first floor features a spectacular master suite with a generous dressing room and a large ensuite with both a bath and a shower. There are two further bedrooms and a well-proportioned family bathroom. The second floor at the top of the house accommodates two further bedrooms and a W.C. There is also a home office space located above the garage.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached up a privately-owned gravel driveway and through an electric gate onto a driveway with ample private parking for multiple vehicles. There is a pedestrian gate to the front elevation, as well as another small side-gate at the bottom of the garden. The front elevation enjoys established box hedges with flower beds on the other side of a paved pathway running the entire length of the house. A gate leads to a haven of a side garden, offering a plethora of flower beds, trees and shrubs that was designed by the multi-award winning Jane Peterson.

A brick paved pathway leads up the length of the garden that leads to a water feature with a traditional pergola in the middle. There are various seating areas and victorian-style lighting, all completely enclosed within high stone and brick walls either side. The rear of the property has a useful storage shed/workshop, with a large double garage off the driveway with an electric up-and-over door.
