Property Description

ASQUITH HOUSE

DESCRIPTION James Laurence are pleased to present this stunning ground floor apartment spanning over 564 Sq. Ft. of internal living space. The property benefits from a host of original style features, gas central heating and 115 years lease. The property comprises: spacious living dining room with a modern kitchen which benefits from a host of integrated appliances, exceptional sized master bedroom, modern bathroom, allocated parking space, secure communal areas, communal gardens and bike store.

LOCATION Asquith House is a beautiful Grade II listed Georgian residence located in the heart of the leafy suburb of Edgbaston and being only 1 mile from Birmingham City Centre. This attractive property has been sympathetically converted into nine stunning and unique apartments.

Asquith House was originally built in 1854 as a private residence for a prominent local family. It has had a variety of uses since, and has maintained a reputation as a keystone for local business - most recently for the Michelin starred restaurant Jessica's (2003-2007).

The property benefits from easy commuting via a range of travel links (bus, train, airport) and is ideally located for commuters with easy access to M5, M6 & M42. There are a wide range of state and independent schools nearby to choose from at primary and senior level.

PARKING Allocated parking space to the front of the development.

COMMUNAL AREA The entrance door to the apartment is accessed from the front of the building via a secure communal entry door. There is a stunning communal area with attractive original features including Minton tiled floor, stained glass windows, cornices and decorative ballustrades. To the rear are attractive communal gardens with feature water fountain and communal bike store.
