Grosvenor Road, Scarborough, Yorkshire, YO11 2LZ Asking Price £375,000

IMMACULATE FIVE BEDROOM HOME WITH AN ABUNDANCE OF CHARACTER THROUGHOUT

Upon entering the property you are welcomed into the beautiful entrance hall offering solid wood floors throughout. The front lounge provides a large bay window which offers generous social living space for larger families and also benefits from log burner. With a separate lounge diner to the rear of the property this reception space overlooks Scarborough famous Valley Road and also benefits from log burner, ideal for those cosy winter evenings. With a kitchen, utility and cloak room all situated on the ground floor, this period property really does cater to the modern contemporary lifestyle.

When entering onto the first floor you are then invited into a choice of four generously sized bedrooms, family bathroom and an abundance of original features. The second floor provides a beautifully spacious study/additional bedroom and would make a fantastic studio space or home office. To the outside of the property there is a generous front courtyard which benefits from mature plants and shrubs and is a perfect place for alfresco dining. To the side of the property there is a boiler room and sperate store space, ideal for garden furniture and further storage. The garden is designed across four tiers and is well stocked with two established cherry trees, an apple tree and fruit bushes on one level. Two levels of the gardens are flat and grassed over and the garden enjoys a hidden area for entertaining and relaxing on summer evenings.

Within a short walk of the house is the unspoiled South cliff Gardens which lead down towards the seafront coming towards the Scarborough Spa which hosts a variety of shows and conventions throughout the year. With easy access to local transport making it easier to get to the wide variety of local amenities Scarborough has to offer.

We really recommend viewing this stunning Victorian property as it really needs to be viewed in order to be appreciate
