Uplands Avenue, East Ayton, Scarborough

Asking Price £235,000

This charming detached dormer bungalow offers a delightful blend of comfort, versatility, and outdoor space—perfectly suited for a range of lifestyles.

Inside, the heart of the home is a spacious kitchen that leads seamlessly into a bright and airy living room, which in turn flows effortlessly into the dining area, creating a wonderful open-plan space ideal for family gatherings or entertaining. A second, more private living room provides a cosy retreat and offers flexible potential to be used as a third bedroom if desired.

The property also features a well-appointed family bathroom and two generously sized bedrooms, each offering a comfortable and relaxing retreat.

Outside, the home boasts a front lawn garden that adds to its kerb appeal and offers a welcoming first impression. To the rear, you'll find a low-maintenance paved garden complemented by a neatly kept lawn area—a great spot for outdoor dining or enjoying the sunshine. Additional benefits include off-street parking and a detached garage, ensuring both convenience and ample storage.

East Ayton is a charming village nestled in North Yorkshire, England, just a few miles southwest of the coastal town of Scarborough. Known for its picturesque setting along the banks of the River Derwent, the village blends historical character with natural beauty. At its heart lies a traditional English community, complete with quaint stone cottages, a welcoming pub, and a parish church dating back centuries. East Ayton is also a gateway to the North York Moors National Park, making it a popular spot for walkers, cyclists, and nature enthusiasts. With its peaceful atmosphere and rich local history, it offers a tranquil escape while still being close to the amenities of larger towns nearby.

Beautifully presented, this bungalow blends functionality with distinctive character, making it an ideal home for families seeking comfort and style.
