Four bedroom home with driveway, workshop/studio and garage en bloc. Located in a quiet no through road in Honeybourne, with open views to the rear and close to both to co-op and railway station. Sitting room, dining room/bar, kitchen, utility and cloakroom. On the first floor there are four bedrooms and a family bathroom. Outside there is driveway parking for two cars, and side access to the rear garden with a large insulated workshop with power. A short walk is a garage en bloc.

HONEYBOURNE

An attractive village on the edge of the Cotswolds which is situated approximately 12 miles south-west of Stratford upon Avon, 4 miles to the east of Evesham and 6 miles north of Broadway. The village has a range of local amenities including two village stores, a church, two public houses, two cafes and a fish and chip shop. The first school offers Year 6 places for children which feeds into the two-tier system in the adjoining counties. Honeybourne railway station offers a direct link to London Paddington. Fibre optic broadband is available, and the new co-op store is open 7 days a week until 10pm.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door opens into a spacious hallway with plenty of space for coats and boots. The sitting room has a large picture window overlooking the front. The current owners use the dining room as a bar, and there are patio doors out to the garden. Fitted kitchen. Useful utility room and downstairs cloakroom. On the first floor there are three double bedrooms, study/bedroom four and a refurbished family bathroom. Outside there is driveway parking for two cars. Side access leads to the rear garden which has a useful workshop which is insulated and has power/light. There is also a garage en bloc a short walk away.
