MICKLETON

Mickleton is situated 3 miles south of Chipping Campden, in the much sought after catchment area for Chipping Campden school. Shakespeare's Stratford upon Avon is approximately 6 miles away. The property is also within 3 miles of the intercity station of Honeybourne with direct services to Reading and London. Mickleton is also the home of The Threeways Hotel with its famous 'Pudding Club' and two other village pubs. There is a thriving local community with many clubs and societies based at the King George Village Hall and The Threeways Hotel, a village store, butcher, church and primary school. The wool town of Chipping Campden offers everyday shopping facilities and doctor's surgery. There is also a medical centre in nearby Quinton with more shopping and cultural facilities in Stratford upon Avon with its Shakespearean connections.
