BLOCKLEY

is situated midway between the Cotswold market towns of Moreton-in-Marsh and Chipping Campden. Historically, Blockley was a centre for the silk industry in the 18th and 19th centuries, harnessing the water from Blockley Brook which flows through the centre of the village. There is a shop and café with fine dining in the evening, two pubs, sports club, fitness gym, primary school and numerous societies in the village. Nearby Moreton-in-Marsh is well served with shops, supermarkets, doctor's and dentist surgeries, and mainline train service to London Paddington.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door opens on street level, with a characterful sitting room with floorboards and a feature gas fire. There is also the family bathroom on this level which has been upgraded by the current owners. On the top floor there are two bedrooms, On the lower ground floor there is a comfortable living/dining room with a lovely flagstone floor and stable door opening onto the courtyard garden with a lovely private dining space. There is a modern fitted kitchen with space for under counter white goods. The property has an abundance of character with stripped beams, exposed stone and fireplaces.
